

NEWSPED / CARGI

Forwarding information system

NEWSPED / CARGI information system is a versatile tool for the freight forwarding company providing full technical support related to the arrangement and management of the entire transport chain from the acceptance of the initial shipment requirement to the issuance of the customer invoice, checking of the received supplier's data and the shipment's financial evaluation.

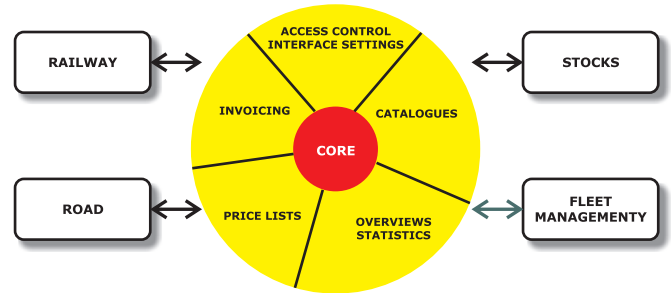

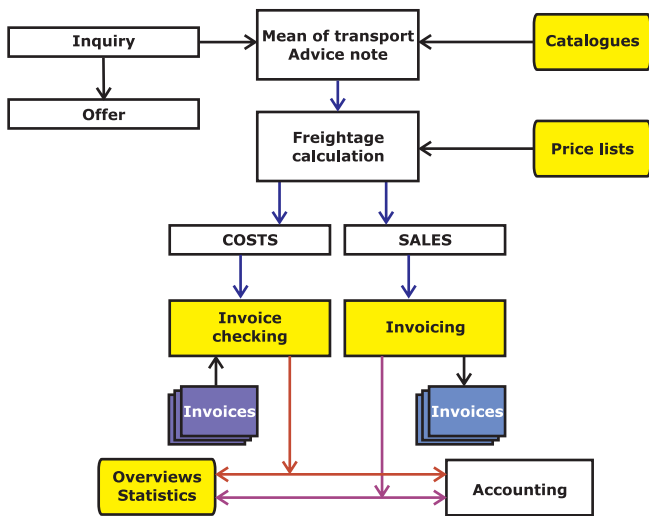

oltis group

General Features

- > Covers the decisive workflow of a forwarder
- > Individual system setting according to the customer needs
- > Independent of the transport mode
- > System respects the client company structure with the option to restrict access to data
- > Multilingual support (CZ, SK, EN, DE, RU, PL, HU, RO, IT, SL) with the ability of easy extension
- > Support of electronic data exchange with other systems
- > Application in trading and manufacturing companies shipment departments

Simplified workflow of Railway transport module

Key features

- > Listing of business partners and other support catalogues
- > Requirement registration
- > Creating price lists and price log, links to electronic tariffs
- > Electronic exchange of price lists, issue/receipt
- > Calculating of price bids
- > Shipment register
- > Issue of sales invoices
- > Checking of incoming invoices, receipt of invoices from railway companies accounting departments
- > Electronic data exchange with business information systems
- > On-going monitoring of the business case
- > Evaluation of the business case
- > Evaluation of business partners, credit management
- > Simplified road module for rapid registration and the road transport processing
- > Module for the fleet management of wagons, road vehicles and containers – card file, leasing, subsequent lease, price calculation, registration and planning of inspections and repairs directly linked with haulage activities
- > Forwarding warehouse module directly linked to haulage activities

